

2024 FEED INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP AWARD

The Feed Industry Leadership Award is presented annually to industry leaders who, through their work and dedication in the feed industry, have made significant contributions to the aquaculture, poultry and/or livestock sectors in Canada.

Award recipients will be recognized at ANAC's Annual General Meeting and Convention which will be held in St. John's, Newfoundland from May 29 to 31, 2024. ANAC will cover the costs for the recipient and one guest to attend the event.

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

1. ANAC divisions, board members and company delegates may make CONFIDENTIAL nominations to the ANAC Executive Committee for evaluation. All completed nomination forms should be sent to the ANAC office in Ottawa, who will ensure that nominations are forwarded to the Executive Committee.
2. The Executive Committee will review all submissions and select the recipient(s) of the award each year. A maximum of two (2) nominees may receive the award in any given year.
3. A separate submission is required for each nominee and the ANAC division representative, board member or member company delegate must sign each submission.
4. The deadline for receipt of submissions is March 22, 2024.
5. Nominations must include biographical information on the person recommended and the specific contributions for which he/she is to be recognized. Please use the nomination form provided. If there is not enough space to include all information, please include the remaining information in a Word format.
